

For heavens sakes, individual states are capable of passing their own laws. You're always talking about making federal government smaller but you don't. Please leave Indiana's and other states no call laws alone. We really don't need you to fix everything. Thank you for your consideration.